Volunteers Needed!

This special event has been pared down to 3 hours of simply listening to great music, and your help is needed. If you are able to assist at the welcome tent or parking for a 2-hour shift, please call the church office or text organizers. September 19 between 3:30 and 7:30pm. Chuck Kereczman (717-917-7120) is organizing a team to assist with parking and Deb Kereczman (717-917-5773) is looking for helpers who can sit at a welcome table, offer greetings, and get people to fill out contact tracing cards. Thanks for your help! Protocols will be followed including masks, social distancing, & hand sanitizing. A retiring offering will benefit the Hempfield Area Food Pantry.

The white roses in the sanctuary are in memory of Louise Duncan's brother, Dennis Duncan, and Lynda Moody's sister, Jacqueline Blanks.

A Special Opportunity for Waysiders

Greetings from Marsha Bowen, sharing an opportunity with you. I have registered for this series shared by Pastor Larry Moir to register (free) for the W. Don McClure Lecture Series sponsored by Pittsburgh Theological Seminary and its World Mission Initiative on Jesus Christ and the Dividing Wall: Race and God's Mission. This is a wonderful opportunity to delve into how our Lord looks at this timely issue. There is possibility for individual church ZOOM gatherings to discuss after each session. How wonderful to have our church members involved! Please consider joining Larry and me. See the link to register below:
