

Cut around the outside of each image, then fold the image on the middle dotted line. Each image should stand up on its own. When all placed together children can tell the story of Mary being visited by an angel.

