About Today's Service

Thanks to this morning's greeters: Sue Kohler at 9:30 and Kathy Smith at 11:00. Wayside dedicates lap robes at the 9:30 service. The What's Next task force meets at 12:30.

Three-Week Adult Class Begins Today

An Adult Study "Wading in the Water" with Parish Associate Larry Moir begins today at 11:00 a.m. in the Conference Room. "As a member of Donegal Presbytery's Racial Justice Task Group, I am aware of the troubling nature of discussions surrounding racism. It is like wading in troubling waters with slippery stream and river bottoms. As a young lad living along the Niagara River, I donned my hip boots and waded in several of the streams and creeks flowing into the Niagara. It was at times both exhilarating and unsettling. So too are discussions of racism. I propose to help discover the truth and myth of differences between us, in a way that will dismiss fears of guilt, and build understanding. Please join me. I promise you will not get wet!" Larry Moir IGNITE enjoyed its first Wednesday evening gathering! The program runs through March 28, & we encourage Waysiders and new friends to register.

WAYSIDE'S CHILI COOK-OFF will resume on Sunday, February 19. Join the fun after the 10:00AM single worship service, and just before the congregational meeting.

We need 8 chefs in competition to each make a crock pot batch of chili! Also needed: corn bread, sides or salads, and desserts. Sign up sheets are in the hallway.

Bill and I would like to thank Pastor Steve, Judy Kline, the prayer group and the congregation for your prayers the last few months for Bill as he goes through cancer treatment. It has been a rough few months but things are now looking much more hopeful. We both appreciate your prayers and ask you to please continue praying as he has begun a new treatment that is very encouraging. It means so much to us knowing that Wayside is helping us through this with your prayers. With love and appreciation, Pat and Bill Knapp
